How to Have Peace with God

First, I must accept
that I am a sinner.
(Romans 3:23)

Second, I must know that as a sinner I owe a penalty.
(Romans 6:23)

Third, I must believe that Jesus Christ has already paid my sin debt.
(Romans 5:6)

Fourth, I must receive
by faith what Jesus Christ
has done for me.
(John 1:12)

I receive Jesus Christ
by prayer:

"Dear Lord Jesus,
I know I am a sinner.
I believe that Jesus died
on the cross for me.
I am willing to turn from my sins and receive Jesus
as my Savior and Lord.
In Jesus' name.
Amen."

WELCOME
We're glad you're here.

Sunday, April 28, 2024

Last Sunday at 5:00 pm, I had the opportunity to have some Opening words and prayer at the Men of The King graduation in the Fellowship Center. This was the 10th graduation of the Men of The King. There are now 133 men who have graduated. This year, there were 27 graduates, which is the largest class ever.
Harvey Munsart does a great job leading Men of The King, and the men who graduate are dedicated and committed to all that is required. I left the graduation thrilled seeing what God is doing.

Olivia Nunez, our part-time Preteen Director, will expand her work to full-time, adding children's sports to her existing responsibilities beginning June 1. This will include Hoops, T-ball, Soccer, and the Hoops Basketball Camp. The adjustment to this role will create a seamless connection between our church's Childrens Ministry and our children's sport leagues, providing opportunities for both spiritual and physical development, all under the leadership of a Children's Ministry staff member.

Thank you for being in church today. I hope you have a good worship experience and leave glad you came and ready for the week ahead.

Sunday Morning Worship

Jon Redmond Preaching

"Honoring the Lord with Our Voices"
Matthew 3:1-3 (Pew Bible Page 1113)

Introduction: Last Sunday morning, we talked about the importance of listening to the voice of God. As we studied what the voice of God sounds like, we learned that His voice is a still small voice. It's like a gentle whisper. So, in order for us to hear His voice, we have to be quiet. We have to be still. This morning, we will think about the importance of honoring the Lord with our voices. As we will see, our words matter to others and to God.
